I would like to thank you for your service regarding purchase and delivery of the Opel Astra Estate to my home in Spain.

Once again you have made the process very easy and your attention to detail was second to none, although it was very short notice that I gave you, purchase of the Astra was made very easy.

Communication throughout the process was excellent and you advised me every step of the way, the delivery time was tight regarding my schedule but the car was delivered exactly on the agreed delivery date.

This is my second purchase through European Direct, I will not hesitate to use your service again and highly recommend your professional service to others looking to purchase a left hand drive car.

Best Regards
